Scouting's Got Talent

Rhearsals are well underway for Stowmarket District Scouts who have created a brand new styled Scout Show.

Returning to the Regal Theatre after a two-year break, the production has an all new producer, director and chairperson at the helm.

The show is loosely based on TV talent shows ... there are "good" acts, "rubbish" acts, a panel of judges and show hosts - all played by a cast of 30 plus Scouts, Explorers, Leaders and supporters, backed by a support crew, providing an amusing evening's entertainment to find out who will be the eventual winner of "Scouting's Got Talent!"

To book tickets contact the Regal Theatre box office on 01449 612825 or use their new online booking system.

The show runs from Wednesday to Friday, November 28 to 30, at 7.30pm, with a final matinee show on Saturday, December 1, at 11am. All tickets are just £7
